

STREET ADDRESS
1.1 km WEST OF
POWER LOT RD

CITY/TOWN/VILLAGE
CLEMENTSVALE

MUNICIPALITY
ANNAPOLIS

COUNTY
ANNAPOLIS

YEAR BUILT
ca 1841

ARCHITECTURAL COMMENT: Large Gothic Revival style home. 1½ storey wood const Large medium pitched central dormer with two windows. Originally a 5 bay fac with central entrance. Today one single window has become a paired window.

HISTORICAL COMMENT: This older home in Clementsvale has an interesting history
The present owner, Denton Trimper, told how this home was built by David Pine
It was used as a way house where riders changed horses from Liverpool. The house has hand hewn timbers. Older residents, like Denton Trimper, remember Samuel Pine and Maurice Wright living here.

CONTEXTUAL COMMENT: This house is situated on the south side of the highway on slope.

ARCHITECTURAL EVALUATION
	U	VR	R	C	VC
Design
Construction

HISTORICAL EVALUATION
	U	VR	R	C
Age
Arch./Builder

3. A.P. Church map of ...
 4. N.S. Directory 1864-1865

ORIGINAL OWNER: PINE, David

OCCUPATION: YEOMAN

BUILDER:

ORIGINAL USE: Residence /Way House

PRESENT USE: Residence

HISTORY OF BUILDING:

OWNER	FROM:	TO:	OCCUPATION	B
PINE, David	1841	---	YEOMAN
PINE, Samuel	---	1877
PINE, David	1877	1877
PINE, Samuel Edward	1877	1934
WRIGHT, Maurice Edwin	1934	1944
TRIMPER, Denton Archibald	1944

COMMENTS ON HISTORICAL ASSOCIATIONS:

A Nova Scotia Directory for 1864-65 lists David Pine as an innkeeper.⁴ This lend credence to the tradition that this house was a way house or hotel. S
 Edward Pine was a farmer.¹ Maurice Edwin Wright was a carpenter.¹ Denton was a cook and laborer.¹